SECTION 4 – EMERGENCY POLICIES & PROCEDURES

4.1 BOMB THREAT SITUATION PROCEDURE

A 'bomb or other threat' includes the declaration by a person (verbally or otherwise) of an intention to injure or harm any person, or any property or anything. Threats of this nature are taken very seriously.

In the event of an exhibitor or contractor receiving a 'bomb threat', the following procedure is to be adopted;

1. If the threat is received via telephone, hold the caller on the line for as long as possible.
2. Attempt to obtain as many details regarding the alleged bomb and its location, in particular the exact wording of the threat.
3. Make note of the caller's voice, accent and any background noises.
4. Alert someone to notify the hotel's security department that you have received a threat (Ext 8734).
5. Remain calm.

4.2 EVACUATION PROCEDURE

In the event that an evacuation of the building or an area is required, you will be advised by an instruction given over the hotels public address system followed by the evacuation tone.

You will be required to;

1. Remain calm at all times.
2. Close any doors and windows behind you.
3. Calmly make your way to the nearest emergency exit.
4. Assist others if safe to do so.
5. Follow instructions given by emergency response personnel.
6. Ensure you are accounted for at the evacuation assembly area.

4.3 FIRE PROCEDURE

If an exhibitor or contractor discovers a fire, the following procedure is to be followed;

1. Remain calm and assess the situation.
2. Raise the alarm,
 - a) Activate a Manual Call Point or contact the Security department on Ext 8734.
 - b) Advise the operator
 - i. who you are,
 - ii. where you are,
 - iii. what the situation is, and
 - iv. what action is being taken.
3. Alert other occupants of the building / area.
4. Evacuate the building / area and assist others if safe to do so.

4.4 SUSPICIOUS DEVICES PROCEDURE

A suspicious item can be considered an item or object that;

- Looks out of place
- Should not be there
- Cannot be accounted for

If you discover a suspicious item or object;

1. Do not touch or move the item in any way.
2. Move away from the item or object.
3. Alert the Security Department on Ext. 8734. Advise the operator;
 - a. The location of the item/object.
 - b. A description of the item/object
 - c. Has the surrounding area been cleared
4. Do not use a mobile phone, two way radio or pager.
5. Prevent other individuals from entering the area.

Examples of suspect devices or activities;

- Vehicles that appear abandoned or unattended and located in an unauthorised or peculiar area;
- Unattended bags – sports bags, handbags, suitcases, golf bags, shopping bags;
- Luggage not tagged by concierge and positioned in or nearby the front office reception area;
- Ornaments (e.g. a vase) that appear but its origin is unknown
- Parcels addressed to persons unknown at the Resort

SECTION 5 – ACCEPTANCE AND UNDERSTANDING

5.1 SECURITY AND INSURANCE

RACV Royal Pines Resort has stringent risk management policies and procedures in place. Your assistance in following the procedures as outlined in section 4 is greatly appreciated. All individuals must conduct their own risk assessment of the exhibition area prior to the event. While the utmost of care is taken, RACV Royal Pines Resort does not accept any responsibility/ liability for any product, person, accident, incident or injury that may occur during your conference/ event.

Exhibitors are responsible for all goods and equipment that is left on display. Arrangements can be made to provide a security officer to guard goods and equipment during and after events where the goods and equipment may be left unattended. Please contact the RACV Conference & Events Coordinator for further information on the provision of security services.

5.2 INDEMNITY

You agree to hold harmless and indemnify the Resort from and against any loss, damage, expenses, payments, costs (including costs of any settlement), claim, demand, action or proceeding that may be made against or incurred by the Resort arising out of or in relation to the performance of your obligations or failure to perform your obligations under this agreement.

5.3 LIABILITY

You are financially responsible for any loss or damage sustained by the Resort caused by a conference attendee or contractor prior to, during or after the conference. The Resort does not accept responsibility or liability for any delegate, contractor or any other person that may sustain an injury or any other ailment while on RACV Royal Pines Resort property.

5.4 SIGNATURE CONFIRMATION

By signing and returning this document, you have agreed to adhere to the abovementioned items. Failure to return this form may result in non-admittance to the Resort and Convention Centre and non-compliance will see immediate removal from the Resort.
